1 Definitions

1.1 In these Canons unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires or indicates:

- 1.1.1 “Archbishop” means the Archbishop of the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui;
- 1.1.2 “Book of Common Prayer” means the book which is recognised for public worship for the Province and adopted and authorised for use under the provisions of the Constitution;
- 1.1.3 “Church” means the Province known as the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui;
- 1.1.4 “Church Body” means the Church Body of the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui;
- 1.1.5 “Constitution” means the constitution of the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui;
- 1.1.6 “Diocese” means the dioceses established under the Constitution;
- 1.1.7 “Foundation” means the Foundation of the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui;
- 1.1.8 “General Secretary” means the General Secretary of the General Synod of the Province;
- 1.1.9 “General Synod” means the General Synod of the Church;
- 1.1.10 “Honorary Treasurer” means the Honorary Treasurer of the Church;
- 1.1.11 “House of Bishops” means the House of Bishops of the General Synod;
- 1.1.12 “House of Clergy” means the House of Clergy of the General Synod;
- 1.1.13 “House of Laity” means the House of Laity of the General Synod

- 1.1.14 “Mission Church” means a congregation established as such by a Diocesan Bishop in accordance with provision of the constitution of such a Diocese or in case of a Missionary Area a congregation established as such by the Archbishop;
- 1.1.15 “Missionary Area” means a missionary area established under the Constitution;
- 1.1.16 “Missionary Diocese” means a missionary diocese established under the Constitution;
- 1.1.17 “Parish” includes any parochial district or similar pastoral division constituted by or under the constitution of a Diocese, Missionary Diocese or Missionary Area; and if the context of this Canons requires or permits shall include mission churches;
- 1.1.18 “Province” means the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui (香港聖公會) incorporated under the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui Ordinance;
- 1.1.19 “Secretary General” means the Secretary General of the Province;
- 1.2 If the context of the Canons so requires or permits, words which have a special meaning assigned to them in the Constitution shall have the same meaning in these presents.
- 1.3 If the context of the Canons so requires or permits, words importing any gender shall include the other gender, words in the singular number shall include the plural number and vice versa, and the expression “person” shall include organisations and/or corporations.
- 1.4 Unless otherwise specifically provided in the content, any resolution shall mean a resolution passed by a simple majority by not less than 50% of the members present and voting and a special resolution means a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- 1.5 If the context to the Canons so requires or permits, the term “Hong Kong” shall be substituted by the term “Macau” so that the provisions of the Canons can be appropriately extended to regulate parishes, mission churches, other agencies and bodies in Macau.

2 Construction of Canons in both Official Languages

- 2.1 The English language text and the Chinese language text of the Canons shall be equally authentic, and the Canons shall be construed accordingly.
- 2.2 Provisions of the Canons are presumed to have the same meaning in each text.
- 2.3 Where a comparison of the authentic text of a provision of the Canons discloses a difference of meaning which the rules of interpretation ordinarily applicable do not resolve, the meaning which best reconciles the texts, having regard for the object and purposes of that provision of the Canons, shall be adopted.
- 2.4 Any discrepancy in the construction of the Canons in both official languages which cannot be resolved in accordance with clause 2.3, shall be referred to the Archbishop for adjudication whose decision shall be final.

CANON TWO

GENERAL SYNOD REPRESENTATION

1 Representatives for the House of Clergy

The representatives for the House of Clergy of the General Synod shall consist of all clerics of the Province who fulfill the following requirements at the commencement of an ordinary meeting of the General Synod in which they are representatives:

- 1.1 having obtained a valid licence issued by the Archbishop or a Diocesan Bishop of the Province; and
- 1.2 having served in any one or more Dioceses of the Province for not less than three (3) years.

2 Election and Term of Representatives to the House of Laity

2.1 Thirty (30) representatives from the house of laity of each Diocese shall be elected to the House of Laity of the General Synod by the house of laity of the synod of that Diocese from amongst themselves; provided that each lay delegate elected into the House of Laity of the General Synod shall at the date of the election:

- 2.1.1 have been a Registered Member of one or more Parishes of the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui for not less than seven years; and
- 2.1.2 have served the Diocesan Synod he belongs to for not less than one full term starting from the commencement of an ordinary meeting of the Diocesan Synod to the commencement of the ensuing ordinary meeting.

2.2 At a suitable time before an election, the Diocesan Bishop shall, through the executive secretary of the Diocesan Synod, call for nomination of candidates from the house of laity of the synod of the Diocese and may set a deadline for the receipt of such nomination.

- 2.3 If the number of candidates so nominated shall not exceed the number of representatives required, the Diocesan Bishop shall declare the candidates so nominated elected.
- 2.4 If the number of candidates so nominated shall exceed the number of representatives required, an election for the representatives to the House of Laity shall accordingly be held in accordance with the constitutions and canons of the Diocese.
- 2.5 The term of a representative to the House of Laity shall be from the commencement of the ordinary meeting of the General Synod following the election of the representative by the Diocese or Missionary Area concerned to the commencement of the ensuing ordinary meeting of the General Synod.
- 2.6 In the event of any casual vacancy in the representation from the house of laity of any Diocese, such vacancy shall be filled by a representative from the house of laity elected by the standing committee of that Diocese for the remainder of the term until the commencement of the ensuing ordinary meeting of the General Synod.

3 Rules Regulating Election of Representatives

- 3.1 Each of the Dioceses may make rules regulating the election of the representatives of the Diocese to the House of Clergy and to the House of Laity. Such rules shall not be inconsistent with provisions herein or with those of the constitution, canons or by-laws of the Diocese concerned.
- 3.2 Voting in the election of representatives shall be by secret ballot.
- 3.3 Results of the election shall be declared by the Diocesan Bishop of the Diocese concerned and shall be reported to the General Secretary of the General Synod.

4 Election of Representatives by the Missionary Area of Macau

Rules set out hereinbefore regulating the election of representatives to the General Synod shall be applied with appropriate adaptations to the Missionary Area of Macau for the election of the representatives to the House of Clergy and the House of Laity.

CANON THREE

ELECTION OF THE ARCHBISHOP

1 Procedure for the Election of the Archbishop

- 1.1 In the event of a prospective retirement, the Archbishop shall ask the Standing Committee of the General Synod to initiate the procedure for the election of his successor not earlier than eighteen (18) months and not later than six (6) months prior to the proposed date of his retirement.
- 1.2 Pursuant to Section (12.7) of the Constitution, procedure for the election of the Archbishop shall be in accordance with provisions hereinafter set out.
- 1.3 The General Synod may by special resolution suspend operation of the whole or any part of these provisions, or substitute any part or parts hereof with different provisions.

2 Electoral College

- 2.1 For the purpose of the election of the Archbishop, there shall be an Electoral College ("the Electoral College") composed of the following persons:
  - 2.1.1 All active bishops of the Province (except the retiring Archbishop and any Diocesan Bishop whose Diocese has elected a Bishop Co-adjutor to succeed him) herein referred to as the House of Bishops ("House of Bishops", such definition of the House of Bishops being exclusively for the purpose of this Canon only);
  - 2.1.2 All clergy delegates of diocesan or missionary diocesan synods and council clergy members of missionary areas herein referred as the House of Clergy ("House of Clergy"), such definition of the House of Clergy is exclusively for the purpose of this Canon only; and

- 2.1.3 All lay delegates of diocesan or missionary diocesan synods and council lay members of missionary areas herein referred as the House of Laity ("House of Laity"), such definition of the House of Laity is exclusively for the purpose of this Canon only.
- 2.2 The Archbishop incumbent or his appointee shall be Chairman of the Electoral College.
- 2.3 The General Secretary of the General Synod shall be the Honorary Secretary of the Electoral College.
- 2.4 The Chancellor of the Church shall be the Parliamentarian at all meetings or sessions of the Electoral College for the election of the Archbishop

3 Candidates

- 3.1 All incumbent Diocesan Bishops, Missionary Diocesan Bishops, and Bishop Co-adjutors of the Province, subject to the requirement as stipulated in paragraph 3.2 hereinbelow, shall be the candidates in an election of the Archbishop; provided that in case a Diocese has both a Diocesan Bishop and a Bishop Co-adjutors at the time of the election, the Diocesan Bishop of that Diocese shall not be a candidate in the election.
- 3.2 Unless a candidate if so elected shall be able to hold office and exercise the duties and functions appertaining to the office of the Archbishop for a minimum of six (6) years beginning from the date of his election, he shall not be eligible to be a candidate in an election of the Archbishop.

4 Election

- 4.1 The Chairman of the Electoral College may convene meetings or sessions for all members of the Electoral College to elect the Archbishop.
- 4.2 Usual notice of meeting as the case for convening a meeting of the General Synod shall be given by the Honorary Secretary of the Electoral College to all members of the Electoral College.

- 4.3 Voting shall be held separately in the House of Bishops, House of Clergy and the House of Laity. Voting shall be in the form of secret ballots. No proxy voting shall be allowed. Members of the Electoral College must be present in person to cast votes. The computation of the majority of votes hereinafter provided must be based on the respective total numbers of membership of the three respective Houses and not votes of members present and voting.
- 4.4 The candidate shall be declared elected the Archbishop if he shall receive the highest votes which must be a simple majority of more than half of the votes received in his favour in all three respective Houses of the Electoral College.
- 4.5 In the event the requirement of simple majority not being achieved in the first round of voting, then the two (2) same candidates with the highest and the next to the highest number of votes in the first round of voting in all three Houses shall be eligible for the second round of voting. The candidate shall be declared elected the Archbishop if he shall receive the higher votes which must be a simple majority of more than half of the votes received in his favour in all three respective Houses of the Electoral College in the second round of voting. In the event only one (1) candidate receives the highest or second highest votes in all three Houses of the Electoral College in the first round of voting, he shall be the only candidate eligible to proceed to the third round of voting.
- 4.6 In the event of equal number of votes in any of the three Houses making it impossible to cut down the number of candidates to meet the number of candidates as required by the provisions hereinbefore set out for subsequent round of voting, a special round of voting (such round of voting shall not be counted as a round of voting as herein elsewhere provided) shall be conducted to determine the candidate or candidates who shall proceed to the next round of voting. In the event of equality of votes occurring, the matter shall be settled by the drawing of lots.
- 4.7 In the event if neither of the remaining two candidates obtain the simple majority required in all three respective Houses of the Electoral College in the second round of voting, then the candidate with the highest number of votes in all of the three Houses shall be eligible to proceed to the third round of voting.

- 4.8 In any event if the three Houses of the Electoral College have different sets of candidates in a round of voting, then the election shall be terminated. The Chairman of the Electoral College may call for another election of the Archbishop after a lapse of six (6) months.
- 4.9 In the event if no candidate obtains the simple majority required in all three respective Houses of the Electoral College after the sixth(6) round of voting, then the election shall be terminated and the Chairman of the Electoral College may call for another election of the Archbishop after a lapse of six (6) months.
- 4.10 Subject to the above, the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui Standing Orders shall be observed in meetings or special sessions of the Electoral College for the deliberation on the candidates for the election of the Archbishop.

5. Confirmation of Result of the Election of the Archbishop

Result of the election of the Archbishop shall be confirmed by the General Synod within one month from the date of the election and shall be promptly reported to the Registrar of the Church.”

CANON FOUR

ELECTION OF DIOCESAN BISHOPS

1 Ecclesiastical Authority

- 1.1 In the event of a vacancy or an anticipated vacancy in the office of a Diocesan Bishop in any one of the Dioceses, the synod of the Diocese concerned shall have the ecclesiastical authority to call an extraordinary meeting in accordance with the provisions of its Constitution.
- 1.2 A clergy of the Church or of a church in full communion with the Church, who is of good standing and sound learning, shall be eligible to be nominated as candidate.

2 Electoral College

For the purpose of the election of the Diocesan Bishop, the Diocesan Synod shall establish an Electoral College ("the Electoral College") composed of the following persons:

- 2.1 All licensed clerics (including the Archbishop and the Bishops) of the Province ("House of Clergy", such definition of the House of Clergy being exclusively for the purpose of this Canon only);
- 2.2 All lay members of the Diocesan Synod of the Diocese whose see is or will be vacant, and the lay representatives of the other Dioceses, Missionary Dioceses, and Missionary Areas in the General Synod ("House of Laity", such definition of the House of Laity being exclusively for the purpose of this Canon only).

3 Procedure for the Election of a Bishop

3.1 Nomination

- 3.1.1 The Diocesan standing committee of the Diocese concerned shall appoint four (4) clergy and four (4) laymen to be members of the Nominating Committee.

- 3.1.2 In making such appointment, the Diocesan Standing Committee shall ascertain the intention of the clergy candidates in being candidates for the election. All clergy members who have declared no intention of being candidates for the election, thus appointed to be members of the Nominating Committee, shall thereafter be debarred from being candidates for such election.
- 3.1.3 The bishop of the Diocese concerned for the time being or his commissary shall appoint one (1) of the members to serve as chairman of the Nominating Committee.
- 3.1.4 Candidates nominated by the Nominating Committee shall not exceed the number of three (3) and election meeting shall be held not later than four (4) weeks after the publication of the names of the candidates.
- 3.1.5 Nomination by any five (5) members of the diocesan synod concerned or by the vestry of any Parish shall be accepted within ten (10) days of the publication of the nominees by the Nominating Committee.
- 3.1.6 No member of the Diocesan synod shall be allowed to nominate more than one candidate.
- 3.1.7 Documents in support of nomination:
  - 3.1.7.1 letter signifying the Nominee's consent to be nominated;
  - 3.1.7.2 concise particulars of the Nominee;
  - 3.1.7.3 signature of the chairman of the Nominating Committee or the five (5) nominators or the signature of the secretary of the vestry of the Parish making the nomination together with the certified copy of the minutes of the vestry meeting approving the nomination; and
  - 3.1.7.4 any other information deemed relevant by the Nominating Committee or the standing committee.

3.1.8 Adequate copies of the statement containing concise particulars of nominees and reasons supporting nomination shall be supplied by nominators for distribution to all members of the Electoral College.

3.1.9 Information on candidates shall be sent by the diocesan standing committee to members of the Electoral College not less than seven (7) days before the date set for the election.

3.2 Discussion

Apart from reading out the particulars of the nominee, there shall be no discussion in respect of the nomination.

3.3 Voting

3.3.1 Voting shall be held separately in the house of clergy and the house of laity, and a two-thirds majority in each house of those present and voting shall be required for election.

3.3.2 Voting shall be in the form of secret ballot. In each round of voting, a member of the Electoral College can cast one (1) vote only.

3.3.3 In the event of the required two-thirds majority not being achieved in any one of the two (2) houses of the Diocese after conducting three (3) rounds of voting, then the four (4) candidates with the highest numbers of votes in the latest round of voting shall be eligible to proceed for the next round of voting.

3.3.4 In the event of the required two-thirds majority not being achieved in either of the houses of the Diocese at the fourth rounds of voting, then the three (3) candidates with the highest numbers of votes shall be eligible to proceed to the next round of voting.

- 3.3.5 In the event of the required two-thirds majority not being achieved in either of the houses of the Diocese at the fifth round of voting, then the two (2) candidates with the highest numbers of votes shall be eligible to proceed to the next round of voting.
- 3.3.6 In the event of the required two-thirds majority not being achieved in either of the houses of the Diocese at the sixth round of voting, then the candidate with the highest number of votes shall be eligible to proceed to the next round of voting.
- 3.3.7 In the event of the required two-thirds majority not being achieved for the remaining candidate in either of the houses, voting shall be repeated. The candidate shall only be elected if two-thirds majority votes are obtained at both houses of the Diocese.
- 3.3.8 In the event of equal number of votes in any of the two houses making it impossible to cut down the number of candidates to meet the numbers of candidates as required by provisions herein before set out for subsequent round of voting, a special round of voting shall be conducted to determine the candidate or candidates who shall proceed to the next round of voting. In the event of equality of votes occurring, the matter shall be settled by the drawing of lots.
- 3.3.9 In any event if the two houses of the Diocese have two different sets of candidates without any common candidate, then the election shall be terminated. The Diocese may call for another nomination three (3) months after the election.
- 3.3.10 In the event if the remaining candidate fails to obtain the two-thirds majority required in both houses of the Diocese after ten (10) rounds of voting, then the election shall be terminated, and the Diocese may call for another nomination three (3) months after the election.

4 Confirmation of Result of the Election of a Bishop

- 4.1 When a person shall have been so elected in a Diocesan synod, a testimonial shall be given in the following form signed by a majority of clergy and laity who were present at the synod:

Testimonial

Date .....

- 4.5 In all cases the Archbishop and the Standing Committee shall satisfy themselves that the stipend of the bishop-elect is adequately and duly guaranteed before proceeding to his consecration.

5 Election of Diocesan Bishop by the General Synod

- 5.1 If for any reason the Diocesan synod does not desire to exercise its right to elect a bishop, it may delegate its right to the General Synod by passing a resolution to that effect by a two-thirds majority, and informing the Archbishop of its action.
- 5.2 The Archbishop having received the resolution shall take measures to secure the election of a bishop by the General Synod.
- 5.3 Result of the election of a bishop by the General Synod shall be final and accepted by the Diocese concerned.

6 Time Limit for the Election of a Diocesan Bishop

- 6.1 The Diocesan Synod shall proceed with due diligence to elect a bishop to fill a vacant see of the Diocese, and in any event a new bishop is to be elected no later than two (2) years from the date of the occurrence of the vacancy.

- 6.2 If for any reason Paragraph 6.1 hereinabove is not complied with, the House of Bishops shall have the ecclesiastical authority to appoint a bishop for the Diocese concerned, and such appointment by the House of Bishops shall be final and binding upon that Diocese.

7 Reporting of the Results of the Election

Results of the election shall be promptly reported by the Diocese concerned to the House of Bishops and to the Registrar of the Church.

CANON FIVE

ELECTION OF BISHOP CO-ADJUTOR

1. Ecclesiastical Authority

- 1.1 In the event of a prospective retirement, a Diocesan Bishop shall ask the Standing Committee of the diocese concerned to initiate the procedure for the election of a Bishop Co-adjutor not earlier than eighteen (18) months and not later than six (6) months prior to the proposed date of his retirement.
- 1.2 The Standing Committee of the diocese concerned shall then have the ecclesiastical authority to call an extraordinary meeting of the Synod in accordance with the provisions of its constitution.
- 1.3 The eligibility for candidacy in the election of a Diocesan Bishop set out in Paragraph 1.2 of Canon 4 shall be applied to regulate the eligibility for candidacy in the election of a Bishop Co-adjutor.
- 1.4 The method of election of a Diocesan Bishop set out in Article 2 of Canon 4 shall be applied to regulate the method of election of a Bishop Co-adjutor.

2. Procedure for the election of a Bishop Co-adjutor

The procedure for the election of Diocesan Bishops set out in Article 3 of Canon 4 shall be applied to regulate the election of the Bishop Co-adjutor.

3. Confirmation of Results of the Election of a Bishop Co-adjutor

- 3.1 When a person shall have been so elected in a Diocesan Synod as the Bishop Co-adjutor, a testimonial shall be given in the following form signed by a majority of the clergy and laity who were present at the synod:

Testimonial

In the Diocesan Synod of ..... on the ..... day of ..... in the year ..... the Reverend ..... was in accordance with the Canons of the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui elected Bishop Co-adjutor of the Diocese of ..... (Signatures) .....

Clergy and Lay Delegates

Diocesan Synod of .....

Date .....

- 3.2 The Chairman and the executive secretary of the diocesan synod shall send a copy of the above testimonial certified by their signatures to the Archbishop.
- 3.3 Upon receipt of the testimonial the Archbishop shall procure the performance of the procedure set out in paragraphs 4.2 to 4.5 of Article 4 of Canon 4 and the Bishop Co-adjutor shall be substituted for and regarded as the bishop-elect of the diocese concerned.

4. Consecration of the Bishop Co-adjutor and Enthronement as the Diocesan Bishop

- 4.1 The elected Bishop Co-adjutor shall be consecrated as soon as possible and shall take office as such and shall perform the duties as arranged and directed by the diocesan bishop of the diocese concerned.
- 4.2 Unless otherwise defrocked in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the Church, the Bishop Co-adjutor, shall succeed upon any vacancy of the diocesan bishop office and be enthroned as the diocesan bishop of the diocese concerned as soon as possible.

5. Election of the Bishop Co-adjutor by the General Synod

- 5.1 If for any reason either the diocesan synod of the diocese concerned or its Standing Committee does not desire to exercise its rights to elect the Bishop Co-adjutor upon being requested by its bishop so to do, it may delegate its rights to the General Synod and accordingly inform the Archbishop of its desire and its request to the General Synod to arrange for such election.
- 5.2 The Archbishop having received the request shall take measures to secure the election of the Bishop Co-adjutor by the General Synod.
- 5.3 The General Synod may follow the procedure set out in Canon 5 or prescribe its own procedure in organizing the election.
- 5.4 Result of the election of the Bishop Co-adjutor by the General Synod shall be final and accepted by the diocese concerned.

CANON SIX

MEETINGS OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

1 Convening general meetings of the General Synod

- 1.1 In accordance with the requirements under Paragraph 10.4 of the Constitution, a general meeting of the General Synod shall be convened once in every 3 years at such time and place and in the manner as decided by the Standing Committee; provided always that the date of convening a general meeting of the General Synod shall not be more than 48 months from the conclusion of the general meeting immediately prior to the one to be convened.
- 1.2 Notice convening a general meeting of the General Synod shall be in writing and issued by the General Secretary of the General Synod. Such notice shall be served to members not less than 21 days before the scheduled date of the commencement of the meeting.
- 1.3 The accidental omission or the non-deliverance of the notice convening the general meeting of the General Synod to any member shall not invalidate the legality of the meeting.
- 1.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the general meeting of the General Synod may be convened at more than one place of the meeting if so decided by the Standing Committee. Under such circumstances, the chairman of the meeting shall be present physically at, and the meeting shall be deemed to take place at, the principal meeting place.
- 1.5 Any Member attending at the meeting place(s) designated by the Standing Committee shall be counted in the quorum for and entitled to vote at the meeting in question, and the meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid provided that the chairman of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that members attending the meeting are able to participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened.

- 1.6 Where members attend physically at one of the meeting places, a failure (for any reason) of the communication equipment, or any other failure in the arrangements for enabling those in a location other than the principal meeting place to participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened, shall not affect the validity of the meeting at the principal meeting place or the resolutions passed, or any business conducted there or any action taken pursuant to such business.
- 1.7 The Standing Committee may make rules or arrangements for the convening and conduct of the general meeting of the General Synod which are not covered under this Canon or the Standing Order.

2 Standing Orders

- 2.1 The General Synod shall have the right to adopt standing orders and rules to regulate proceedings of its meetings;
- 2.2 The Standing Orders may be amended from time to time by the General Synod at its meetings by a Special Resolution; and
- 2.3 The Standing Orders may be relaxed in such manner or suspended at any meeting of the General Synod by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority vote at the meeting.

3 Chairman of Meetings

- 3.1 As provided in the Constitution, the Archbishop shall be the chairman of the General Synod and as such shall chair all its meetings;
- 3.2 The Archbishop may appoint a vice-chairman or any member of the General Synod to be chairman of any of its meetings; and
- 3.3 The chairman of meeting so appointed by the Archbishop shall enjoy the same powers as the Archbishop would enjoy as chairman of the General Synod in presiding the proceedings of the meeting of the General Synod.

4 Secretary of the Meetings

- 4.1 The General Secretary shall be secretary of meetings of the General Synod;
- 4.2 The secretary of meetings shall be responsible for:—
  - 4.2.1 ensuring that minutes and records of all meetings are properly kept and published for circulation and adoption by the meetings as soon as possible after the conclusion of the subject meetings;
  - 4.2.2 keeping and preservation of all papers, memorials and other documents used in the meetings;
  - 4.2.3 conducting all correspondence for the meetings;
  - 4.2.4 examining and verifying credentials of all delegates;
  - 4.2.5 preparing and keeping of complete records of delegates to the General Synod;
  - 4.2.6 keeping the time of meetings;
  - 4.2.7 passing on to his successor in office all documents and records pertaining to the meetings of the General Synod which are in his possession, custody and control.

5 Recording Secretaries

- 5.1 Two Recording Secretaries, one each for the Chinese and the English Language, shall be appointed by the Archbishop.
- 5.2 Recording Secretaries shall act under the direction of the General Secretary and work closely with the Business Committee.
- 5.3 Recording Secretaries shall be responsible for the keeping of minutes and records of meetings of the General Synod.

6 The Business Committee

- 6.1 The Business Committee shall be a committee under the General Synod acting under the direction of the Standing Committee to:
  - 6.1.1 assist the Standing Committee in preparing for the convening of meetings of the General Synod;
  - 6.1.2 assist the General Secretary in receiving and compiling reports of all relevant committees and bodies, dispatching the same to the delegates of the General Synod at least fourteen (14) days before scheduled dates of the subject meetings;

CANON TWENTY-FIVE

NEW DIOCESES

1 Establishment of New Dioceses

- 1.1 Before application for any new Diocese can be made, there must be already, within the limits of such proposed Diocese, at least five (5) parishes served by at least five (5) clergy in holy order.
- 1.2 A new Diocese shall be financially independent.

2 Name of the New Diocese

- 2.1 Names of the new dioceses shall as much as possible reflect the geographical location of such dioceses and shall carry “Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui” and “香港聖公會” in such names in the English and Chinese languages respectively.
- 2.2 Proposed name of a new diocese shall be submitted for the approval of the Standing Committee before its adoption at the first synod of the new diocese.
- 2.3 Proposed changes of the name of an existing Diocese shall likewise be submitted for the approval of the Standing Committee.
- 2.4 The Standing Committee shall, in approving the name of the new diocese, take into consideration the views of the new diocese. The decision of the Standing Committee thereon shall be final.

3 Convening the Synod of the New Diocese

- 3.1 Whenever a new diocese shall be formed within the limits of any of the Dioceses, or by the junction of two or more Dioceses, or parts of Dioceses, and such action shall have been ratified by the General Synod, the Bishop of the Diocese within the limits of which a diocese is formed, or in case of the joining of two or more Dioceses, or parts of Dioceses, the senior Bishop by consecration, shall thereupon convene the synod of the new diocese, for the purpose of enabling it to organise, and shall fix the time and place of holding the same.
- 3.2 In case there shall be no Bishop who can convene such synods, pursuant to the foregoing provision, then the duty of convening such synods for the purpose of organising and of fixing the time and place of its meeting shall be vested in the standing committee of the Diocese within the limits of which the new one is erected, or in the standing committee of the oldest of the Dioceses by the joining of which, or of parts of which, the new diocese may be formed. And such standing committee shall convene the synod forthwith after ratification of the General Synod.

4 Division of Existing Dioceses

Whenever one Diocese is about to be divided into two (2) dioceses, the synod of such Diocese shall declare which portion thereof is to be in the new diocese, and shall make the same known to the General Synod before the ratification of such division.

5 Admission into Union with General Synod

Whenever a new diocese shall have been organised in a synod in accordance with the provisions of the constitution and canons in such case made and provided, and in the manner prescribed in the previous Sections of this Canon, and shall have chosen a name and acceded to the Constitution of the Church in accordance with the Constitution, and shall have laid before the General Synod certified copies of the constitution adopted at its synod, and the proceedings preparatory to the formation of the proposed new diocese, such new diocese shall thereupon be admitted into union with the General Synod.

6 Establishment of a Missionary Diocese into a Diocese

- 6.1 The provisions set out in this Canon regulating the establishment of a new Diocese shall be applicable to the establishment of a Missionary Diocese into a Diocese unless any of such provisions shall have been dispensed with by the Standing Committee.
- 6.2 Upon the admission of a Missionary Diocese into a Diocese of the Province the synod of the Missionary Diocese shall be entitled to elect delegates to the succeeding General Synod and a Bishop in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, Canons, and Standing Order.
- 6.3 Upon the admission of a Missionary Diocese into a Diocese, any special jurisdiction previously assigned to the Archbishop in respect of such Missionary Diocese shall be terminated and replaced with the usual jurisdiction of the Archbishop over a Diocese.

CANON TWENTY-SIX

PARISHES & VESTRY

1 Affiliation and Membership in a Diocese

- 1.1 Parishes are affiliated to the Province through their membership in one of the Dioceses of the Province and shall follow the policies of the Diocese concerned and the Province.
- 1.2 Any new congregation which is desirous of becoming part of the Province shall apply to become either a Parish or a Mission Church of one of the Dioceses of the Province.
- 1.3 The area covered by the Parishes in a Diocese shall be defined by the standing committee of the Diocese concerned, recorded in writing and informed to the Parishes. The standing committee of the Diocese concerned shall be entitled to re-define the boundary of any of its Parishes from time to time.
- 1.4 Parishes shall be assigned into Dioceses of the Church by reference to the geographical location of the place of worship of the Parishes.

(Signed) _____
Vicar and Secretary of Vestry

5 Admission of Candidate for Holy Orders

- 5.1 The Diocesan Bishop may, prior to admitting an applicant to be a candidate for Holy Order, require the applicant to pursue a course of study and training preparatory to the work of the ministry.
- 5.2 When requirements set out hereinbefore have been complied with, the Diocesan Bishop may admit the applicant as a candidate for Holy Order.
- 5.3 No Diocesan Bishop shall consider accepting as candidate for Holy Order any one who has been refused admission as candidate for Holy Order in any other Diocese, or who, having been admitted, has afterward ceased to be a candidate, until he shall have produced a letter from the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese in which he has been refused admission, or in which he has been a candidate, declaring the cause of refusal or of cessation.
- 5.4 A candidate for Holy Order must remain in canonical connection with the Diocese in which he has been admitted until his ordering to the diaconate.

6 Removal from the List of Candidates for Holy Orders

- 6.1 If a candidate for Holy Order shall fail to present himself for canonical examinations within three (3) years from the date of his admission as a candidate, his name may, after due notice, be removed from the list of candidates by the Diocesan Bishop, after consultation with the standing committee of the Diocese concerned.
- 6.2 If a candidate for Holy Order shall have passed his canonical examinations, but on other grounds is refused recommendation for ordination, the Diocesan Bishop, after notifying the standing committee of the Diocese concerned, may remove his name from the list of candidates.
- 6.3 A candidate for Holy Order, in any Diocese of the Church, or of any church in communion with the Church, whose name shall have been removed from the list of candidates or whose application for ordination shall have been rejected, shall not be ordained without re-admission to candidacy, said candidacy to continue for not less than one (1) whole year.

7 Exemption from the process

The Diocesan Bishop may at his discretion exempt or waive the aforesaid process in any application by a candidate for ordination.

CANON THIRTY

ORDERING TO THE DIACONATE

1 Minimum Age and Age of Retirement

No one shall be ordained a deacon until he be twenty-four (24) years of age. A deacon shall retire at the end of the calendar year in which he shall attain the age of seventy (70).

2 Examination Before Ordination

Before the ordination of a deacon the bishop shall require the candidate to submit to a thorough examination, covering both mental and physical condition, by the Standing Commission of Examining Chaplains and professionals authorised by the Diocesan Bishop. These reports shall be kept on file by the Diocesan Bishop and shall be submitted to the standing committee when application is made by the candidate to be ordered deacon.

3 Recommendation from Standing Committee

No one shall be ordered deacon unless he be first recommended to the Diocesan Bishop by the standing committee of the Diocese to which he belongs.

4 Information to be Supplied to the Standing Committee

The candidate shall supply or cause to be supplied to the standing committee of the Diocese to which he belongs the following:

- 4.1 an application in writing duly signed by the candidate;
- 4.2 certificates from bishop(s) by whom he was admitted a candidate, declaring dates of admission as candidate; but when such certificate cannot be produced, other evidence satisfactory to the committee shall suffice;

- 4.3 a certificate from a clergy of the Church, known to the ecclesiastical authority, in the following words, viz.:

Certificate

To the Standing Committee of _____
(Place) _____ (Date) _____

I hereby certify that I am personally acquainted with A.B., and that I believe him to be well qualified to minister in the office of deacon, to the glory of God and the edification of His Church.

(Signed) _____

- 4.4 a certificate from the vicar and vestry of the parish of which he is a member, in the following words, viz.:

Certificate

To the Standing Committee of _____
(Place) _____ (Date) _____

We do certify that, after due inquiry, we are well assured and believe that A.B., for the space of three years last past, hath lived a sober, honest, and godly life, and that he is loyal to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Church, and does not hold anything contrary thereto. And, moreover, we think him a person worthy to be admitted to the Sacred Order of Deacons.

(Signed) _____
Vicar and Secretary of Vestry

This certificate must be attested by the vicar of the Parish or by the secretary of the vestry, as follows, viz.:

Attestation

I hereby certify that A.B. is a member of _____ parish in _____ and a communicant of the same; that the foregoing certificate was approved at a meeting of the vestry duly convened at _____ on the ____ day of _____; and by all (or a majority of all) the members of the vestry.

(Signed) _____
Vicar or Secretary of Vestry

- 4.5 a certificate from the theological college where he has been studying, or from those under whose direction he has been pursuing his studies, showing his scholastic records, and giving a judgement as to his personal qualifications for the ministry of the Church.

5 Recommendation of the Standing Committee

- 5.1 The standing committee of the Diocese concerned, on receipt of the certificates prescribed above and the report of the Standing Commission of Examining Chaplains, and having reason to believe that all other canonical requirements have been complied with, and having no reason to suppose the existence of any sufficient obstacle, physical, mental, moral, or spiritual, may, at a meeting duly convened, a majority of all members of the committee consenting, recommend the candidate for ordination by a testimonial addressed to the Diocesan Bishop in the following words, viz.:

Testimonial

To the Right Reverend _____, Bishop of _____:

We, being a majority of all the members of the Standing Committee of _____, and having been duly convened at _____, do testify that A.B., desiring to be ordained deacon, hath laid before us satisfactory certificates that for the space of three (3) years last past he hath lived a sober, honest, and godly life, and that he is loyal to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Church and does not hold anything contrary thereto. And we hereby recommend him for ordination to the diaconate.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this ____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord _____.

(Signed) _____
Secretary, Standing Committee
Diocese of _____

- 5.2 The testimonial shall be signed and attested by the secretary of the standing committee of the Diocese concerned

6 Arrangement for Ordination

- 6.1 The testimonial having been presented to the Diocesan Bishop, and there being no sufficient objection on grounds physical, mental, moral, doctrinal or spiritual the Diocesan Bishop may proceed with arrangements for ordination.
- 6.2 The Diocesan Bishop may at his discretion exempt or waive the aforesaid process in any application by a candidate for ordination.

CANON THIRTY-ONE

ORDERING TO THE PRIESTHOOD

1 Minimum Age and Age of Retirement

No one shall be ordained a priest until he be twenty-five (25) years of age. A priest shall retire at the end of the calendar year in which he shall attain the age of seventy (70).

2 Serving as Deacon

No one shall be ordered priest until he has been deacon for one full year, unless it shall seem good to the Diocesan Bishop, for reasonable causes, with the advice and consent of a majority of all members of the standing committee of the Diocese concerned, to shorten the time; nor within two (2) years from his admission as candidate for Holy Order, unless the bishop, for urgent reasons fully stated, with the advice and consent of a majority of all members of the standing committee of the Diocese concerned, shall shorten the time.

3 Recommendation from the Standing Committee

No deacon shall be ordered priest unless he be recommended to the Diocesan Bishop by the standing committee of the Diocese to which he belongs.

4 Information to be furnished to the Standing Committee

In order to be recommended for ordination by the standing committee, the deacon shall furnish the standing committee with:

- 4.1 an application in writing duly signed by himself;
- 4.2 a certificate from the Diocesan Bishop declaring that terms of his candidacy and time of his service in the diaconate have been completed, but when such certificate cannot be available, other evidence satisfactory to the committee may suffice;

- 4.3 a certificate from the vicar and vestry of the Parish where he resides, in the following words, viz.:

Certificate

To the standing committee of _____
(Place) _____ (Date) _____

We do certify that, after due inquiry, we are well assured and believe that the Reverend A.B., deacon since the ___ day of _____ in the year _____, being the date of his ordination to the diaconate (or for the space of three (3) years last past), hath lived a sober, honest, and godly life, and hath not written, taught, or held anything contrary to the Doctrine, Discipline or Worship of this Church. And, moreover, we think him a person worthy to be admitted to the Sacred Order of Priests.

(Signed) _____
Vicar and Secretary of Vestry

- 4.4 the certificate must be attested by the vicar of the Parish, or by the secretary of the vestry, as follows, viz.:

Attestation

I hereby certify that the Reverend A.B. is a resident of _____ parish in _____; that the foregoing certificate was approved at a meeting of the Vestry duly convened at _____ on the ___ day of _____, and by all (or a majority of all) the members of the Vestry.

(Signed) _____
Vicar or Secretary of Vestry

5 Recommendation of the Standing Committee

- 5.1 The standing committee of the Diocese concerned, on receipt of the certificates prescribed above and the report of the Standing Commission of Examining Chaplains, and having reason to believe that all other canonical requirements have been complied with, and having no reason to supposed the existence of any sufficient obstacle, physical, mental, moral, or spiritual, may, at a meeting duly convened, by a majority of all members of the committee consenting, recommend the deacon for ordination by a testimonial addressed to the Diocesan Bishop in the following words, viz.:

Testimonial

To the Right Reverend _____, Bishop of _____:

We, being a majority of all the members of the Standing Committee of _____, at a meeting duly convened at _____, do testify that the Reverend A.B., deacon, desiring to be ordered priest, hath laid before us satisfactory certificates that since the ____ day of _____ in the year _____, being the date of his ordination to the diaconate (or for the space of three (3) years last past), he hath lived a sober, honest, and godly life, and hath not written, taught, or held anything contrary to the Doctrine, Discipline, or Worship of this Church; and we hereby recommend him for ordination to the priesthood.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this ____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord _____.

(Signed) _____
Secretary, Standing Committee
Diocese of _____

- 5.2 The testimonial shall be signed and attested by the secretary of the standing committee of the Diocese concerned.

6 Arrangement for Ordination

- 6.1 The testimonial having been presented to the Diocesan Bishop, and there being no sufficient objection on grounds physical, mental, moral, doctrinal or spiritual, the Diocesan Bishop may proceed with arrangements for ordination.
- 6.2 The Diocesan Bishop may at his discretion exempt or waive the aforesaid process in any application by a candidate for ordination.

2 Declaration of Assent

- 2.1 Declaration of Assent to be made under this Canon shall be in the form hereinbelow set out:

Preface

The Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui is part of One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, worshipping the one true God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It professes the faith uniquely revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds, which faith the Church is called upon to proclaim afresh in each generation. Led by the Holy Spirit, it has borne witness to Christian truth in its historic formularies, the Book of Common Prayer and the ordering of bishops, priests and deacons. In the declaration you are about to make will you affirm your loyalty to this inheritance of faith as your inspiration and guidance under God in bringing the grace and truth of Christ to this generation and making Him known to those in your care?

Declaration of Assent

I, (name of the person making the declaration), do so affirm, and accordingly declare my belief in the faith which is revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds and to which the historic formularies of the Anglican Church bear witness; and in public prayer and administration of the sacraments, I will use only forms of service which are authorised or allowed by Canons.

- 2.2 The preface which precedes the Declaration of Assent in the form set out above (with in each case such adaptations as are appropriate) shall be spoken by the Archbishop or Diocesan Bishop or commissary in whose presence the Declaration is to be made in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph and shall be spoken by him before the making of the Declaration.

- 2.3 Every person who is to be consecrated Bishop or Assistant Bishop shall on the occasion of his consecration publicly and openly make and subscribe the Declaration of Assent in the presence of the Archbishop by whom he is to be consecrated and of the congregation there assembled.
- 2.4 Every person who is to be ordained priest or deacon shall before ordination make and subscribe the Declaration of Assent in the presence of the Archbishop or Diocesan Bishop by whom he is to be ordained.
- 2.5 Every person who is to be instituted or admitted to any benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment or licensed to any lectureship or preachship shall first make and subscribe the Declaration of Assent in the presence of the Diocesan Bishop by whom he is to be instituted or licensed or of the Bishop's commissary.
- 2.6 Every person who is to be licensed to any curacy shall first make and subscribe the Declaration of Assent in the presence of the Diocesan Bishop by whom he is to be licensed or of the Bishop's commissary unless he has been ordained the same day and has made the Declaration.

3 Declaration to be made by the Archbishop and Bishops
