Advent 2025 to Advent 2026

Sunday Lectionary: Year A
Daily Eucharist Lectionary: Year 2

Making choices in using this Lectionary

At the beginning of the liturgical year, some decisions in principle need to be made:

- During Sundays after Pentecost, whether to use the 'Complementary track' or the 'Semi-continuous track' at the Holy Eucharist; the Complementary track has the first reading chosen for its relationship to the Gospel reading of the day; the Semi-continuous track has the first reading stays over several weeks with one Old Testament book being read semi-continuously; it is advised that once a track is chosen, it is used consistently through the year;
- On weekdays, whether to use the Daily Eucharistic Lectionary (column 3) consistently (with the exception of Principal Feasts, Principal Holy Days and Festivals) or to make use of the Lesser Festival provision (column 2, and often referring to the Commons of the Saints)

Where optional additional verses or psalms are set, the references are placed in square brackets [...]. A simple choice between two alternative readings is indicated by an italicised or that is placed between the references.

All Bible references (except to the psalms) are to the New Revised Standard Version, Anglicized edition (1995). Those who use other Bible translations should check the verse numbers against the NRSV. References to the psalms are to the Common Worship Psalter.

Certain Days and Occasions Commonly Observed

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity may be observed from 18 to 25 January 2026.

Education Sunday may be observed on any Sunday in September.

The Feast of Dedication is observed on the anniversary of the dedication or consecration of a church, or, when the actual date is unknown, on 4 October 2026.

Days of Discipline and Self-Denial are the weekdays of Lent and all Fridays in the year, except all Principal Feasts and Festivals outside Lent and Fridays between Easter Day and Pentecost. The eves of Principal Feasts are also appropriately kept as days of discipline and self-denial in preparation for the feast.

Days of Fasting and Abstinence is traditionally kept on the forty days of Lent, the Ember Days at the four seasons, the three Rogation Days, and all Fridays in the year except Christmas Day.

Key to Liturgical Colours

Appropriate liturgical colours are suggested in Column I. The colour for a particular service should reflect the predominant theme. If the Collect, Readings, etc. on a Lesser Festival are those of the saint, then either red (for a martyr) or white is used; otherwise, the colour of the season is retained.

When a lower-case letter accompanies an upper-case letter, the lower-case letter indicates the liturgical colour appropriate to the Lesser Festival of that day, while the upper-case letter indicates the continuing seasonal colour.

W	White
w	Gold or white
R	Red
P	Purple (may vary from 'Roman purple' to violet, with blue as an alternative; a Lent array of sackcloth may be used in Lent, and Rose pink on the Third Sunday of Advent and Fourth Sunday of Lent)
G	Green

Principal Feasts, Holy Days and Festivals

Principal Feasts and other Principal Holy Days are printed in BOLD CAPITALS in the Lectionary.

When Patronal and Dedication Festivals are kept as Principal Feasts, they may be transferred to the nearest Sunday, unless that day is already either a Principal Feast or the First Sunday of Advent, The Baptism of Christ, the First Sunday of Lent or Palm Sunday.

Festivals are printed in Bold typeface. Some Festivals are provided with an optional First Evening Prayer (First EP). When it is observed, the liturgical colour for the next day should be used at that First Evening Prayer.

Lesser Festivals and Commemorations

Lesser Festivals are printed in normal typeface and are observed at the level appropriate to a particular church. The readings and psalms for The Common of the Saints are listed on page 5. In addition, there are special readings appropriate to the Festival listed in Column I. The daily psalms and readings at Morning and Evening Prayer are not usually superseded by those for Lesser Festivals.

Commemorations are printed in italic typeface. They do not have Collect, psalm or readings, but may be observed by mention in prayers of intercession and thanksgiving.

For local reasons, or where there is an established tradition in the wider Church, they may be kept as Lesser Festivals using the appropriate material from The Common of the Saints. Equally, it may be desirable to observe some Lesser Festivals as Commemorations.

If a Lesser Festival or a Commemoration falls on a Principal Feast, Principal Holy Day, Sunday or Festival, it is not normally observed that year. Lesser Festivals and Commemorations (shown in italics) which, for this reason, would not be celebrated in 2025-26 are listed below, so that, if desired, they may be mentioned in prayers of intercession and thanksgiving:
